

As a Belton Primary Historian, I:

Have a passion for history

Have an excellent knowledge and understanding of people, events and contexts from a range of historical periods.

Generate questions myself to investigate

Ask questions about the past and interpret my findings

Research significant events and historical figures

Develop the ability to think, reflect, debate, discuss and evaluate the past.

Form my own opinions about what has happened in the past using a range of sources

Place historical events in a chronological order

Form my own opinions about what has happened in the past using a range of sources

History is the study of the past. The study of history helps make sense of humankind. It also helps people understand the things that happen today and that may happen in the future.
